The retiring office-bearers were re-elected-Mr Ho Mei, President, Mr Les Sing, Treasurer, Mr Wel Yuk, Vice President, Hon. Ho Kal, Secretary and Treasurer. It was resolved that the foundation stone should be laid on the press comment favourably; on this striking 16th February, and that the Governor be invited to perform the operation. Delogates were elected from every trades guild and from the compradores of foreign firms to collect additional subscriptions in aid of the building fund.

We have no doubt that a large congregation will be present in St. John's Cathedral on Wednesday to join in the special service in commemoration of the Colony's 50th anniversery. The words of the whole form of service have been printed for the use of all present. The Committee are right in requiring people to be in their seats by 9.30 a.m., as all confusion must be avoided. We understand that no seats have been appropriated by the Committee, except these mentioned in the Hon. Secretary's notice, so that seatholders will merely have to go to their own seats, and visitors, not being seat-holders, will be accommodated with seats by officers told off for the occasion. THE ORIOKET FORTNIGHT. HONGKONG P. SINGAPORE. (Singapore Free Press, Friday, 9th Jan.) Much interest attaches to the match which is being played to-day and to-morrow between Hongkong and the eleven of the Singapore Cricket | lub, as it forms the only chance for Hongkong to retrieve its present unfortunate position of liaving suffered two defeats in the two matches it has alreadylplayed. Hongkong was beaten by the Straits by 166 runs, and Colombo was also victorious over Hongkong by the great margin of 10 wickets and I run. The chances were however considered distinctly Barff in favour of Hongkong, and the odds on Smith the latter winning were put at about 5 to 3. It was a beautiful day for cricket and the Lammert 20 Esplanade was shaded by cloud almost from the moment play began,-1L10 a.m. Towards noon a heavy shower threatened from the north-east, but it drifted away over seawards and only a very light drizzle fell for about a quarter of an hour. For Singapore Watson and Carter were the first to appear, the former taking the bowling from Barif at the status end. But 5 runs had been secred including a three through the slips to Watson, when Carter was easily caught by Lowson at alip off Barif. One for 5, and Birch in. Things looked bad for Singapore when two evers later Birch hit one to coverpoint and ran. Watson who thought it no run did not start till lie saw Birch near his end and could hardly get halfway down when he was run out. for 6 was bad enough as a beginning, but very different complexion was put upon the game when Higginbotham joined Birch. The former had a single off Lowson and a fine 4 snick past the wicket off Barff, Birch scoring half-a-dozen off Lowson's next over, and then Higginbotham hitting Barff for a fine three to the off caused 20 to go up. Play became slow, only 4 runs being added in 6 overs, all off Lowson, whom Sercombe Smith relieved. The strong wind blowing down the pitch took the edge off Smith's deliveries, and he was driven to the on by Higginbotham next over, by Birch the off for 4, all run, and for 3 to the on, and in the following over was hit for a two by Birch, this with an overthrow, and a single to square leg sending up 40. From Barff four singles and a no ball were added to the score and a double change was now had recourse to, Boyle coming on in place of Sercombe Smith and Dunn relieving Barff, relying on bowling for catches and sending Carden and Lowson for out to on and square. The change did no good, for scoring continued at an increased rate without the wanted wicket being got. Dunn bowled three overs for 15 runs, Higginbotham getting the last seven of these by a fine cut for 4 and a drive to on for 3. Dunn now retired, Lammert, left hand, over the wicket, taking up the attack at the statue end. Boyle has got off cheap up till this, having only had three singles made from him so far. But Higginbotham now drove him for 2 and next over cut him bigh through the slips for 3, Boyle got his middle stump next over, however, bowling him with a simple short pitched one which Higginbotham tried to hit across and missed. Three for 65, the 58th man getting a hearty reception on his return for his valuable contribution of 32, He brother in arms, Lloyd, was the next to join Birch, who had been playing a lively but uncommonly lucky innings, having been missed twice by Lowson, at slip and again at mid on, and putting up several easy ones just out of reach beyond point and to short leg. Dunn throughout the innings had been fielding in splendid form at coverpoint, and Darby was often smart at point. Boyle and Lammert still continued the attack, but runs could not be kept down. Birch put one of Lammert's over Campbell at coverpoint, too far to reach and was nearly stumped in trying to hit another ball of the same over. The runs and the luck still came, 80-going up to a fine leg THE S.S. Wordsworth, Captain PHILLIPS, hit by Lloyd. Hornby took the vacant wicket, the rest of the over proving fruitless. Singles ruled, Birch putting two consecutive balls from Lowson high to aquare leg. An over later he was stumped by Blair, 91 for 5, o which the Malacon man had made 89 by free hitting, although he had great luck. Cook immediately commenced with a hard cut on to the road for 4. The next six overs produced but four runs, a good drive by Cook of Lowson for three and a single, He also made a lucky two, over slip's head. bringing up the century, and drove Lammert aplendidly to the off also for a couple, his partner contenting himself with singles.

After a snick for two Cook played one into Barff's hands at slip and retired for 15. Six for 109: Barff took the leather from the Pavilion end and the play became quiet again, each bat making a brace and each bowler a maiden. Hornby relieved the monotony by sending one of Barff's fast ones to the leg boundary for 4. Talbot had very narrow escape from being caught by Boyle at forward square log off Lammert. and Blair missed a chance of stumping Hornby of his succeeding over. Talbot presently hit Barff hugely to leg, bringing up 120. Singles to each brought the score to 124 at lunch time.

Hinde and Talbot saw two maidens, when the latter was yorked by Lowson, after making twelve. Next ball but one saw Saunders sent back. Eight and nine for 129, and the last man, Ross, to partner Hinde. The two made it merry. Chances and runs were made in about equal proportions, the last seven overs producing 27 runs, 19 of which were Hinde's. Each batsman hit out, Hinde making some good leg hits. He was badly missed by Carden off a high drive which fell among three at the bowler's wicket, the high wind deflecting the ball perceptibly. At two minutes to three, however, the Doctor lifted one of Lowson's deliveries about which Boyle made no mistake, and the innings closed for 156. The stand made by the last wicket was quite unexpected, but none the less velcome, and great cheering greated the registry of 150.

At 4 o'clook Hongkong had made 42 for 4 wickets.
